PROCEEDINGS: ORDER ON PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION
(In Chambers)

The Court is in receipt of Plaintiffs' Reply Brief, filed May 24, 2004, which reached the judge's desk in the late afternoon of May 25. No courtesy copy was delivered to chambers, in spite of the Court's express requirement that courtesy copies of all Reply Briefs be delivered directly to chambers.

The Reply Brief raises new issues, provides new evidence, and cites to new authority, all of which should have been included in the Plaintiffs' Opening Brief. Therefore, the hearing scheduled for June 3, 2004, is taken off calendar and continued to Friday, June 11, 2004, at 2:30 p.m.

Defendants are directed to file and serve a Sur-Reply Brief no later than June 4, 2004. Amici Curiae may file a Sur-Reply Brief by the same date should they choose to do so.

Courtesy copies of all sur-Reply Briefs are to be delivered directly to chambers at the time of filing, and must be in at least 14-point font.
